

Maine Rural
Behavioral Health
Workforce Center

Your Story. Your Work.

Every recovery journey shows that change is possible, connection is essential, and stories have power.

Listening to people's stories can provide vital support and encouragement to people confronting substance use or mental health challenges. A career as a recovery coach or peer professional is rewarding work that supports a lifetime of recovery.

Explore a meaningful career helping people in Maine navigate their substance use and mental health challenges. Start your new career path today at: rbhwc.org/maine

This project was supported by the Health Resources and Services Administration (HRSA) of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) as part of an award totaling $2,250,000 with 0 percentage financed with non-governmental sources. The contents are those of the author(s) and do not necessarily represent the official views of, nor an endorsement, by HRSA, HHS, or the U.S. Government. For more information, please visit HRSA.gov.