

Your Story. Your Work.

Every journey in recovery is different. Every journey shows that change is possible, connection is essential, and stories have power.

A career as recovery coach or peer professional in Maine is rewarding work that supports a lifetime of recovery.

Maine Rural
Behavioral Health
Workforce Center

Looking for meaningful work?

Provide vital support and encouragement to people confronting substance use or mental health challenges.

MCD Global Health's Maine Rural Behavioral Health Workforce Center (RBHWC) provides behavioral health training for those who want to start or expand their careers in peer roles like recovery coaching. RBHWC offers ongoing events for those who are in recovery, those who struggle with mental health, affected others, allies, and treatment providers.

ONGOING TRAININGS INCLUDE:

- Recovery Jobs for Beginners Workshop
- Recovery Jobs for Beginners ECHO mentorship
- Medication for People with Opioid Use Disorder (MOUD) ECHO Training, Project ECHO: MOUD
- Project ECHO: Supervision in Behavioral Health

The little things peers do for their people mean so much to them because they're simply giving them the respect and value we all need. We've lost family, we've lost friends, but we also know what it's like to come through it."

Kim RBHWC TRAINING PARTICIPANT

Explore a meaningful career helping people in Maine navigate their substance use and mental health challenges. Start your new career path today at:
rbhwc.org/maine

Maine Rural Behavioral Health Workforce Center

This project was supported by the Health Resources and Services Administration (HRSA) of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) as part of an award totaling $2,250,000 with 0 percentage financed with non-governmental sources. The contents are those of the author(s) and do not necessarily represent the official views of, nor an endorsement, by HRSA, HHS, or the U.S. Government. For more information, please visit HRSA.gov.